Consumption Cured.
THE JUDGE OF HANOVER COUNTY SPEAKS.
Tim. Howard suffered for three years with lung and throat troubles, and last spring was thought by his neighbors to be dying. I heard of his condition and gave him A. B. C. Tonic. Its effect was magical. In a very short time he was able to leave his bed, and now regards himself a well man. Others in this vicinity have taken the "Tonic" with pronounced benefit.

Strange Crews in Port
The British steamship Mamuluke, at Sprackels' Refinery wharf, has a crew of 60 East Indian coolies, commonly called Lascars. The officers of the vessel speak very highly of them, and say they would rather sail with them than a white crew. They are docile, obedient and trustworthy. In this respect differing widely from the Malays, who are extremely treacherous. Some of their peculiar customs are very amusing to Americans. For instance, they always eat their food in the open air with their faces toward the West, and the greatest insult to a white man or "Gaur" can offer them is to walk between them and the sun while they are eating, causing his shadow to fall on their food, which immediately becomes unclean. Their appearance is rendered peculiar by their habit of shaving their heads, leaving but one tuft at the side for "the prophet" to drag them into Paradise by. When married they wear a ring on their big toe. They stand the cold remarkably well, and make good sailors, being active as monkeys. In running aloft they ignore the rattlings and use the backstays, a perpendicular wire rope, which they literally walk up. The Japanese crew of the British steamship Bushmill, which has been lying at Gray's Ferry for a couple of weeks past, excited great curiosity. In appearance they greatly resemble Chinese, but wear no pig tails. They have rather large heads, black and glossy hair, made so by the use of oil, small dark and deeply sunken eyes, and a very thick, though not flat. They were very antipathetic to the Chinese they met while here, evidently considering themselves of a superior race. A curious fact is, they understand written Chinese but not spoken. Capt. Brady spoke very highly of them as seamen, and said they were obedient, industrious and thoroughly honest. This latter, though, is not to be wondered at when it is remembered that he is punished by death in Japan.—Phila. Record.

A NOTED FORGER DEAD—A man whose name was in every one's mouth a few years ago has just died in a little town of Albania. This is Simondee, the notorious forger of Greek manuscripts. He had a remarkable history as a forger of Egyptian and Syrian antiquities, in which career he stood absolutely without an equal. He never attempted to defraud ignorant people, but always dealt with the most celebrated scholars and authorities on the subject. Among his exploits was his presentation to a committee of a dozen scholars at Athens of a manuscript of Homer's works written on lotus leaves, which he asserted belonged to a period considerably anterior to the Christian era. Eleven of the twelve members of the committee were perfectly convinced of the authenticity of the document and believed it was everything Simondee claimed for it. The twelfth, however, made the discovery that it was a faithful copy of the text of Homer as published by the German critic, Wolf, and contained all the errors that the printer and proof-reader had left in it. Simondee succeeded in swindling L. M. Pasha out of a large sum for a forged manuscript of Aristotle's works. He also sold to the British Museum a forged memorandum addressed by Belshazzar to the Emperor Justinian. He also induced the Duke of Sutherland to purchase two apocryphal letters from Alcibiades to Pericles. The remarkable thing connected with the man's life is that several of the greatest scholars in Europe were deceived by the forgeries of the skilful Greek.

THE FORCE BILL—If that Force bill becomes a law during the next session of Congress, as Senator Edmunds predicts it will, every honorable citizen must needs hang his head in shame. When the time comes that the party in power interferes with State elections in order to give itself a new lease of life, we shall enter upon the last chapter of our history. It is better that the republican party should be defeated than that the republic should be sacrificed to its greed and avarice.—N. Y. Herald.

"THE WIFE'S PERSUADER"—On the occasion of the recent celebration of a "wooden wedding" in a Virginia city one of the presents was a broomstick, accompanied by the following verse:
When Nature gave to Paradise
A woman's grace and beauty,
To man she gave a ruling strength,
Erestrain'd by love and duty.
But when she found that man was mean,
And stayed out late at night,
Drank ale, while she made catnip tea,
And made loose habits "right,"
She took compassion on her work,
And gave the wife, to side her,
This tall-man, which I send you—
"This call'd 'The Wife's Persuader.'"

MEDICINAL.

Take
Simmons
Liver
Regulator
One Dose
WORTH
100 Dollars

Dear S. L. R.—Friends: I consider one dose of Simmons Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite, had the blues and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to blue mass, calomel, quinine and all remedies suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S. L. R. did me more good than the $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Respectfully,
T. C. MARLEY

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid liver, and I have been entirely cured by the use of Simmons Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its action as not to interfere, in the least, with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons Liver Regulator. E. A. CHEEK,
Campbellsville, Ky.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS
—AT—
F. PAFF & SON'S,
423 KING STREET.

We have placed on our CHEAP COUNTER a large lot of MEN'S, LADIES', MISSES' and CHILDREN'S FINE SHOES to be sold BELOW COST. These are not inferior goods, but of the best makes, which have become a little shop-worn and must be sold to make room for our incoming stock. We would call the special attention of misses and children with narrow feet. They can find special bargains in this lot. This lot of goods will be sold regardless of cost and must be closed at once. Our fall and winter goods, which are arriving every day, are of the best styles, and prices are put down very low.
Give us a call. oct9 1m
